ELDAR DIRE AVENGERS AND EXARCH

▲ Dire Avengers are the most common of the Aspect Warriors. Their mastery of both shooting and hand-to-hand combat make them the most versatile Aspect squad available to the Eldar.

NECRON SCARABS

▶ Scarabs zip around the battlefield, disrupting enemy fire and sowing confusion. They are the bane of enemy tanks, whose armor they can break through in mere minutes!

NECRON IMMORTALS

■ True to their inhuman nature, Necron weapons destroy their opponents by literally stripping the flesh from their bones. Known as Gauss technology, these weapons are as powerful as their effects are horrifying.

ORK BOYZ

▲ Overrunning the foe in a gigantic green tide is the basic Ork 'strategy'. Slugga Boyz form up into huge mobs and close with the enemy as soon as possible, hacking apart the foe with glee! Shoota Boyz, like most Orks, are more concerned with making loads of noise - hitting their mark is, well... slightly less important.

ORK WARLORD GHAZGHKULL THRAKA

A Renown Ork Warlord who led not one but three massive assaults against mankind, most recently on the Hiveworld Armageddon.

GRETCHIN

The Gretchin aren't going to win any battles by themselves, but they can be used to pester enemy troops while da Boyz get into position to dish out some real punishment.

ORK STORMBOYZ

▲ Stormboyz are unhinged Orks who willingly strap crude rokkits onto their backs to 'fly' them into enemy lines!

ORK WARTRAK SCORCHER

▲ The Scorcher excels at driving troops from cover with its heavy flamer. It can roar around the field to where it's needed the most, or advance slowly with the rest of the boyz.

ORK BURNA BOYZ

▲ Burnas are powerful cutting torches that can cut through the most resilient armor with ease or advance slowly with the rest of the boyz.

ORK DREADNOUGHT

▲ Any Boy worth his green skin would love nothing better than to be wired into a Dreadnought to unleash its wide range of weaponry upon the enemy.

ORKS NOBZ IN MEGA ARMOR

◀ Huge slabs of heavy armor plates over a powered exoskeleton make these Orks extremely slow but nearly impenetrable. Add to that some devastating weaponry, and these monsters are truly destructive.

SPACE MARINES

SPACE MARINE TACTICAL SQUAD

▲ The Space Marine Tactical Squad is the basic combat unit in the Space Marine army. Deadly, versatile and able to hold up under hideous amounts of enemy fire, Tactical Squads are the backbone of every Space Marine Chapter.

Commander, Veteran Sergeant, Apothecary, Standard Bearer and a Techmarine.

SPACE MARINE COMMAND SQUAD

A great boxed set, the Space Marine Command Squad contains a Space Marine

SPACE MARINE SCOUT SQUAD

▲ Under the right conditions, Space Marine Scouts can infiltrate – a special ability that allows them to deploy almost anywhere on the battlefield. This advanced set-up gives Space Marine Commanders an excellent chance to disrupt enemy plans, and to start launching their own offensive.

▲ Space Marine Dreadnoughts are massive war machines crewed by mortally wounded heroes of old.

WARHAMMER 40,00

▲ The Carnifex is a towering beast which is able to rip open the most heavily armored vehicles with ease. This chitinous killing machine is a terror for any opponent to face on the battlefield.

TYRANID WARRIOR WITH A RIPPER SWARM

▶ Tyranid Warriors are most likely to be found at the epicenter of an oncoming wave of creatures from the Hive Mind. They are one of the few Tyranid Synapse Creatures that keep the psychic bond between the Hive Mind and the broods about them strong. They are also some of the most formidable adversaries in an army composed of highly effective fighters.

Gargoyles get the upper hand on their opponents by swooping into combat using the Deep Strike rules, when the scenario allows, and by the sheer fact that they can move up to 12" in the movement phase.

TYRANID ZOANTHROPE

▲ Zoanthropes can be a valuable asset. They may not look like much (their physical weapons consist solely of their basic claws and teeth). However, when they unleash their massive blasts of psychic energy to decimate their targets, you'll be glad they're on your side.

TYRANID RAVENER

A Raveners are lightning-quick, snakelike creatures that have been engineered by the Hive to strike quickly and powerfully on unsuspecting victims before they have a chance to react. To represent this, they move 9" instead of the usual 6" that normal troops move.

TERMAGANTS AND HORMAGAUNTS

The swarms of Hormagaunts and Termagants that scurry over the field are so numerous that the contents of just one boxed set can barely fit on one page. Each box contains enough to make 8 Hormagaunts, 8 Termagants, and even a Ripper Swarm to slither in and out of the hordes on the battlefield.

COLLECTING YOUR ARMY

In order to play a game of Warhammer, you need some space to serve as the battlefield, an opponent, the Warhammer boxed game, pencils and paper. More importantly than all of that, however, you're going to need an army! And armies don't just fall from the sky, they're collected and built over time. While it may sound like a simple endeavor, it can be a complicated and sometimes daunting task. The first part is often the toughest, and that's getting started in the right direction.

Your first choice may be to think about expanding the armies in the boxed game. Since you've already got a great start to your army, all you'll need is a couple more regiments to get a decent sized force. Or you may decide to strike out and start a completely new army. A good place to look for info on a new army is the new Warhammer website at www.games-workshop.com. In the meantime, or if the internet isn't an option for you, you can call Mail Order, or visit your local Games Workshop Hobby Center or Rogue Trader Store. where the staff on hand should be able to give you helpful advice towards choosing your army.

When you've decided which army you're going with, it's time to start gathering your forces. A great way to start is with one of the Battalion boxed sets (above). Beyond that there are literally thousands of Citadel Miniatures to choose from. This catalog shows a sampling of the miniatures available for every army.

Now you're on your way to being the general of your very own Warhammer army. As you continue with the Games Workshop hobby, why not read White Dwarf each and every month for the latest info on new releases and developments that could affect your army! Remember, that once you've got an army you can always expand it to play bigger games, or evolve it as you gain experience and discover new flaws you can exploit in your enemies tactics. Your options are practically unlimited when comes to collecting an army!

REAPER BOLT THROWER

▼ There is nary a better machine for delivering hails of deadly bolts into the ranks of the enemy. It can either fire one precisely-aimed bolt, or unleash six shots in one round. Either way, someone is almost sure to meet their maker.

KING ALRIK AND THOREK IRONBROW

Two characters of Dwarf Legend and their arcanartifacts inspire Dwarfen heroics in battle. King Alrik fights atop the Great Shield of his ancestors, spurring his compatriots on to victory. Thorek Ironbrow, Dwarf Runelord, is at work with the Anvil of Doom, a sacred artifact of the Dwarfs which actually empowers the Dwarfs in battle as runes are forged.

AHMIANS

VON CARSTEINS

ANECRARCHS

WOOD ELF ARCHERS WITH COMMAND

The Wood Elf longbow shoots 36" instead of the usual 30" with a special -1 save modifier. This means even the most heavily armored knight can be laid low by a Wood Elf Archer!

▲ Very few troops can stand up to the full fury of a Treeman. They are so strong, tough and stubborn, that unless you beat and wound them in hand-to-hand combat, they simply refuse to break!

HERE TO SERVE YOU!

The Rogue Trader Program was started in 1998 to better serve independent retail shops that carry Games Workshop products across North America. What once only covered retail information and education now includes support for in-store leagues, the infamous Battle Tours, the widely popular Rogue Trader Tournaments, campaigns and more! Today you can expect all kinds of things from the Rogue Trader Program so you can play more games and meet more new opponents then ever before! In the end you want a place where you can go and pit your army against another player, and the Rogue Trader Program helps you find those stores and creates events for you to participate in!

be found all over North America, and you can most likely find at least one near you! What are they? They are independent retail shops that carry Games Workshop product. To better inform you, we've created a guide showing what lines of product your local retailer carries, whether you can walk in and get a game or pick up a copy of White Dwarf magazine. Plus, this guide also includes their phone number so you can give stores a ring and find out exactly what events are taking place in their shop!

MEGA-BATTLES, CAMPAIGNS, BATTLE TOURS AND MORE!

Where can you get into the best mega-battles where a dozen players can throw their armies together in one massive onslaught at once? How about getting into a month long campaign where your forces can rule a whole realm (if you are a savvy and lucky Commander!), participate in the great Games Workshop Battle Tours, or sign-up for a Rogue Trader Tournament? At your local shop!

OUTWIT THE ENEMY, WIN GLORY UPON THE BATTLEFIELD, SEE YOUR NAME IN LIGHTS!

Games Workshop's Rogue Trader Tournament System has been designed for you, the players, in an effort to bring a Games Workshop supported and organized tournament system to stores and gaming clubs all over North America. Tournaments are not only a lot of fun, but also a chance to meet new players and game against people in a competitive but fun atmosphere. Just when you think you can't dot another eye on another model - your local Rogue Trader store runs a Rogue Trader Tournament! What better motivator to finish painting your force - or even collect a whole new army?

HALL OF HEROES!

Rogue Trader Tournaments are only the beginning however, because with the Rogue Trader Tournament System you can track the results of the games played at Rogue Trader Tournaments on the Games Workshop website in an area known as the Hall of Heroes.

As you enter into and play in more tournaments your ranking increase. As you learn the subtleties of your army and refine your tactics in game play, painting, and learn the ultimate secret (that having fun is always more important than winning), you will be able to win special awards that will increase your allotted points and glory! You can then compare your progres with other Commanders Generals from around the world, see who is on top, and set your sights on toppling them from their thrones.

HALL OF HEROES

TRACK DOWN A ROGUE TRADER TOURNAMENT NEAR YOU!

First, check the latest issue of White Dwarf to see which stores are running Rogue Trader Tournaments. Alternatively, you can log onto the web and check the Rogue Trader Tournament website (you can find the link to it on the Games Workshop website).

Once you have found a Rogue Trader Tournament that you want to attend, make sure you call that store and reserve your spot, RTT's fill up quickly! While you are on the phone with the shop, find out the rules that will be applying to that tournament - how many points they are playing with, any special restrictions. etc., etc. Once you have this information, you are ready to begin crafting your army for the tournament!

GET OUT AND PLAY!

The only way to get started down the path of fame and glory is to get out and play! Whip your army into shape, find a Rogue Trader Tournament and start showing why you are the biggest, baddest Warlord around. Right now as we go to press the current leaders are:

Warhammer 40,000 Rogue Trader Tournament leader is Mike Sager of Lee's Summit, MO with four Overall Champion titles for a total of 37 points.

Warhammer Rogue Trader Tournament leader is Joshua Glantz of Eldred, NY with one Best Army and one Best Appearance title for a total of 26 points.

TAKE THE CHALLENGE!

If you live near any of these champions, make sure you challenge them to a game! Who knows, you could be next to lead the world as top player in Rogue Trader Tournaments, but first you have to start playing! If you can't find any Rogue Trader Tournaments taking place near you, then contact a local store or gaming club and see if they are interested in running or hosting one.

You could be hero for merely getting Rogue Trader Tournaments started in your area, not to mention making it the place to come and game, meet new opponents, and test your army's mettle against dozens of others. After all - you can't have a battle with just one player!

It's that time of year again, time for people to run around maniacally gathering gifts for their loved ones, and then their loved ones running around maniacally trying to exchange those gifts, because they aren't quite what they were looking for.

Remove yourself (and the people buying you gifts) from this scenario by using our official Games Workshop Holiday Wish Scroll! It will make it plain as day to your generous benefactors (the folks giving you gifts) what it is you'd like to receive.
