Welcome to Games Workshop's 2009 Citadel Miniatures Catalogue.

This catalogue includes our full range of models for Warhammer, Warhammer 40,000 and The Lord of the Rings. You will also find our complete range of rulebooks, Codexes, army books, and gaming supplements for these games. In addition we have included our paints, brushes, modelling accessories, scenery and gaming aids such as dice, measures, and templates. In short – you will find everything needed to put together and field an army – all clearly illustrated in colour throughout.

We also have two further Citadel Catalogues available on-line to download. The first is the Specialist Games catalogue covering our Blood Bowl, Battlefleet Gothic, The Battle of Five Armies, Warmaster, Epic, Mordheim, Inquisitor, and Necromunda ranges of games and models. The second is our catalogue of Bitz Packs featuring our range of conversion pieces for modellers, plus our recently launched and highly acclaimed Collectors series. Many of the models in the Collectors series can be pressed into service as part of a Warhammer or Warhammer 40,000 army, or a The Lord of the Rings force.

We have tried to make sure this catalogue is as up-to-date as possible at the time of going to press. New models are released every month, so our ranges are constantly growing whilst older models are often retired to make way for updated versions. Check out our web-store www.games-workshop.com for the latest information about forthcoming and newly released miniatures and up-to-the-minute news about offers and events.

USING THIS CATALOGUE

About the Models

Models in this catalogue are shown painted. All models are supplied unpainted. All miniatures are shown at ACTUAL SIZE, unless otherwise noted. All models that require a base are supplied with the correct plastic Citadel Miniature slottabase.

The models shown in this catalogue are shown assembled. This is not how they are supplied. All models will require some assembly. Most models require nothing more complicated than affixing the miniature to its plastic base. Some multi-part metal kits are labelled in this catalogue as being recommended for experienced modellers. These kits will need a degree of modelling skill to assemble.

How to Purchase Items from this Catalogue

You can find our products in Games Workshop stores or better independent retail shops. Information for ordering Games Workshop products directly from us, via our online store or by phone, can be found on page 420.

Each product in the 2009 Citadel Miniatures Catalogue is identified by a title (in bold) and an 11-digit code. Please quote these when ordering. Shown is an example from the Warhammer Dark Elves section.

This set contains 2 models supplied at random from the 4 designs shown.

MULTI-PART PLASTIC KIT

Multi-Part Plastic Kits

The multi-part plastic kit is a boxed set that contains one or more plastic "frames" of models or component parts that can be clipped out and assembled in a variety of different poses and often with several choices for weapons or equipment.

Some multi-part plastic kits can make several options of model or troop type depending on which combination a modeller selects. Here we have shown five Space Marines made from the frames in the Space Marine Tactical Squad boxed set.

Other kits may allow for a variety of weapon combinations, upgrades, or accessories. To the right we have shown differently assembled Vampire Counts Skeleton Warriors.

For each product that bears the multi-part plastic kit stamp we have shown a painted example of just some of the models that can be assembled and a brief description of all the models and/or weapon choices that are possible.

Safety First

Citadel Miniatures are fine scale models designed for gamers and collectors. Due to small parts and essential pointed components, Citadel Miniatures are NOT recommended for children under 12 years of age.

Modelling tools can be dangerous if used improperly. Craft knives particularly should always be used with the greatest care and should not be used at all by young children. Always be sure to read the instructions on the packaging when using any type of glue or spray primer.

Prices

The title and code will match a corresponding price, which can be found online at:

CHAOS SPACE MARINES

"We fight the long war, not through vain notions of duty or honour, but through a far purer purpose: hatred. At the height of our glory we were betrayed and cast out by our own kin. Guilliman, Dorn, Sanguinius these are names I curse. Horus, Perturabo, Angron these names I revere, names I would follow to the very end."

Ferrous Ironclaw, Warsmith of the Iron Warriors Second Grand Company

At the birth of the Imperium of Man, fully half of the Emperor's most trusted Space Marine Legions turned against him in a bitter civil war, becoming Chaos Space Marines. Ten thousand years after their defeat, those same traitors still launch their Black Crusades out of the Eye of Terror, intent upon nothing less than the utter destruction of the Imperium and the death of its weakling Emperor.

DARK ELДАР

"Spawned in the darkest pits of the universe, the piratical Eldar are a curse upon all races of the galaxy. For untold thousands of years they have preyed upon us, stealing forth from the shadows and dark places on their raids of terror and violence; massacring or capturing all those whose paths they cross."

*High Lord Kouron

These demented cousins of the Eldar are a curse upon all. For endless millennia, the Dark Eldar have preyed upon other species, butchering or imprisoning all. Their piratical raids strike without warning, smashing defences quickly and then disappearing before reinforcements arrive. When a raiding force appears on a planet, its inhabitants know one thing: it is far better to die fighting the Dark Eldar than be taken alive by them.

IMPERIAL GUARD

"I have at my command an entire battle group of the Imperial Guard. Fifty regiments, including specialised drop troops, stealthers, mechanised formations, armoured companies, combat engineers and mobile artillery. Emperor show mercy to the fool that stands against me, for I shall not."

Warmaster Demetrius, at the outset of the Salonika Crusade, 733.M41

The Imperium of Man is beset in all quarters by perfidious traitors from within, savage aliens from without, and warp-spawned fiends from beyond. Across countless warzones, the warriors of the Imperial Guard form the staunch backbone of the desperate war to hold back the relentless tides of the Imperium's enemies.

IMPERIAL GUARD BANEBLADE

The Baneblade is one of the most powerful war machines in the galaxy. In one round of shooting alone it can bring to bear the mighty baneblade cannon, a demolisher cannon, two lascannons, and three twin-linked heavy bolters. This devastating firepower, coupled with its thick armour, makes the Baneblade the pride of the Emperor's armies.

The Baneblade is a massive plastic kit with 7 frames and over 250 components. The kit can be assembled in many variations with 3 optional slots for the sponson weapon mounts and all the components needed to make the Hellhammer Anti-Infantry Tank.

THE INQUISITION

"You must face the truth squarely and without flinching from duty. Our enemies are mortal no longer. Mercy for such as they is a chimera, self-deception is its only ally. Dedicate this weapon, given unto your hand at the behest of the Emperor, to their destruction. Regard its function as your only duty: you live only to bring cleansing fire."

Galbus Heer, Lectures to the Ordo Malleus.

The Witch Hunters of the Ordo Hereticus are perhaps the most sinister of all Inquisitors as the threats they must face lurk amongst the everyday citizenry of the Imperium; the witch, the mutant, the heretic and the fallen cleric.

The Inquisitors of the Ordo Malleus, the Daemonhunters, are at war with forces too terrible to comprehend and, together with the Grey Knights, they take the light of the Emperor into the darkness.

The skeletal warriors of the Necron race have lain dormant in their stasis-tombs for millions of years. Now, ancient portents are realised and a horror from the darkest depths of pre history awakes...

ORKS

"The Orks plague the galaxy from end to end with their ceaseless warring and strife. They are a race rooted so deeply in war that peace is utterly incomprehensible to them. They cannot be bargained with or bought save with weapons which they will inevitably turn against those who tried to bribe them. I pray with all my faith that some great catastrophe will annihilate them but I fear that ultimately it is they, not we, who will rule this galaxy."

Imperial High Lord Xanthias

Orks are the most widespread and warlike race of aliens in the bloodstained galaxy of the 41st Millennium. They only live for one thing and that's war. They are constantly fighting anything that gets in the way, even themselves! In fact the only thing keeping the Orks from uniting and bringing down the end of the galaxy is their inability to get along. Were they to organise and unify, they would quickly overwhelm and crush all opposition.

SPACE MARINES

"They shall be pure of heart and strong of body, untainted by doubt and unsullied by self-aggrandisement. They will be bright stars in the firmament of battle. Angels of Death whose shining wings bring swift annihilation to the enemies of Man."

*Roboute Guilliman,
Primarch of the Ultramarines*

The Space Marines of the Adeptus Astartes are humanity's ultimate warriors, dedicated to the defence of the Emperor and the Imperium of Man. They are barely human at all, but superhuman, having been made superior in all respects to a normal man by a harsh regime of genetic modification, psycho-conditioning and rigorous training.

TYRANIDS

"They are coming! I feel them scratching inside my mind, scratching, screaming, running, so many - so, so many voices. They're coming for us - flesh, body and soul!"

From the unspeakable cold of the intergalactic void an immeasurable alien intelligence moves ever closer. Barren husks of countless star systems lie in it's wake.

The first tendrils of the great devourer a single entity stretching over light years of space and controlled by the immortal Hive Mind, have probed our galaxy and found it rich in prey.

CHAOS DAEMONS

"They come to claim us for their dark masters, to choke the world in decadence, to drown it in disease and blood. What hope can there be for the mortal world? It is assailed by nightmares and its most dangerous dreams, each one given murderous form by the power of ancient and terrible gods."

Liber Malefic

When the material world and the Realm of Chaos collide, fragments of a Chaos God's dark will are let loose to wreak havoc and utter destruction – they are the scions of Chaos, known to others simply as Daemons.

CHAOS DAEMONS

Chaos Daemons can be fielded as either a Warhammer or Warhammer 40,000 army – the same models are suitable for both games. The following pages show the Chaos Daemon range on both square and round bases – this is because they come supplied with both types of base, either square for Warhammer or round for Warhammer 40,000. The Masque, Eternal Dancer of Slaanesh, is shown below as an example.

"With lance and blade, we will strike down the cowardly enemy. We, the proud knights of Bretonnia, will ride them down. With faith in the Lady, we will be impervious to harm. We will be remembered always, our heroic deeds living beyond our years. For Bretonnia, and for the Lady, charge!"

Duke Bohemond the Beastslayer, at the Battle of Grismar Crossing.

The knights of Bretonnia are renowned throughout the Warhammer world for their skill at arms, their bravery and chivalry, and for their undying faith in their goddess, the Lady of the Lake. When it marches to war the Bretonnian army is an impressive sight to behold, with proud ranks of knights backed up with scores of low-born peasants.

DWARFS

"A Dwarf army is like a well-crafted mail shirt; each warrior is an iron-hard link, knitted together by duty, honour and loyalty. And, like a mail shirt, never a blow shall pass them as long as all the links remain strong."

– Dwarf saying

The Dwarfs are the most tenacious and determined warriors of the Warhammer world. Their mountain holds are under constant pressure from Orcs, Goblins and Skaven so they must frequently march out to defend their homes and hoards. Even in defeat they record and remember every affront and will miss no opportunity to settle their grudges with the edge of an axe.

LIZARDMEN

"Amid the darkness and horror of a world splintering apart, the armies of the true creators, we who were ancient at the dawn of time, will march forth once more. We shall sweep away all that is chaos and disorder, for ours is the true path, and none shall defy us."

Translation from ancient plaques attributed to Venerable Lord Kroak.

Long before the rise of the Elves, Dwarfs or Men, the Lizardmen existed in the oppressive depths of the steaming jungles. Coldly alien and enigmatic, their civilisation seeks to restore the order in the world that their Old One creators envisaged before their mysterious disappearance.

*"CRUSH! STOMP!

Far to the east of the Old World lie the savage OGRE KINGDOMS. Amongst the frozen and desolate mountains of this realm live the Ogres; ugly, violent monsters who kill and eat anything they can catch. A single Ogre has enough brute strength to destroy a farmstead or village, whereas the ramshackle armies that march west from the OGRE HOMELANDS are powerful enough to destroy empires.

TOMB KINGS

"Lightning shall sunder the skies, legions of the long-dead kings shall once more rise eternal in conquest, and death shall ride beside them."

Settra, the Eternal King of Nehekhara

For thousands of years they have lain within their mighty burial monuments. Called from their sleep of death, the ancient kings of Nehekhara march forth from their tombs to seek vengeance on those who would disturb their slumber. Loyal even in death, the armies of the Tomb Kings march at the side of their lords, seeking to reclaim the kingdoms that were once their own.

WARRIORS OF CHAOS

"Fear me mortals, for I am the Anointed, the Favoured Son of Chaos, the Scourge of the World. The armies of the gods rally behind me, and it is by my will and by my sword that your weakling nations shall fall."

– Archaon, Lord of the End Times

From the far north come the conquering Hordes of Chaos, led by the Champions of Chaos. Raised in battle, these great warriors fight for glory and the favour of their mighty gods. Immortality and everlasting power are the rewards for those who are strong; mutation and madness await the weak-willed and foolish.

WOOD ELVES

"Athel Loren shall not suffer the presence of Men, nor Orcs, nor Dwarfs, nor Beastmen. If a foe takes a single step upon such sacred soil, they shall not take another."

*Skarloc,
Mist Walker of Athel Loren*

Deep within the dark forests dwell the fey folk. Legends of Elves existing in the sacred forests and wooded lands have persisted for centuries and any traveller that steps into one of these forbidden places is never heard of again. Stories tell of a group of High Elves who decided not to return to Ulthuan but instead made their homes in the Old World.

COLLECTORS RANGE

The Collectors range is intended to both complement and supplement our main ranges which aim to provide all the essential troops types, characters and machinery required to assemble an army for Warhammer or Warhammer 40,000 or build forces to play our The Lord of The Rings game. In selecting models for the 'Collectors' range we have used three main criteria as explained below.

Showpiece models are display pieces, often dioramas or set-pieces, primarily intended for painting and display rather than gaming. Although this is a small part of the Collectors range at the moment we hope to add more showpiece models over time.

Alternative models are metal alternatives to plastic models in the main range, or alternative character variants too numerous and varied to include in the main Catalogue. Some of these models have been drawn from previously discontinued ranges but compare well in quality to modern designs – others are brand new additions to the Collectors range.

Historic models are slices of Citadel's history – they are models that remain popular amongst collectors either because they have special significance as design landmarks or because they are charming, characterful or just plain quirky. Generally speaking, these models do not match the quality of modern designs and they are often significantly smaller.

Our policy is to maintain a catalogue of Collectors models of a size that we can reliably manufacture and supply. We can't hope to make all of our entire archives available at once, so instead we will cycle through our back-catalogues, dropping pieces where demand is low and adding pieces that are commonly asked for or which we think will be popular. Although models will always be retained in the range if there is genuine demand – we cannot guarantee that any models will be available year after year – and would suggest that serious collectors make purchases whilst models are available rather than taking a chance.

Our Collectors range is growing all the time as we add new models or recommission moulds from our archives. In order to purchase models from the range you can visit our web site or download the most up-to-date version of the Collectors Catalogue from www.games-workshop.com.

Final Fate of the Witch-king
Sculpted by Michael Perry.

Animosity Orcs

Greenskins live for violence, and in the absence of any enemies they will cheerfully fight amongst themselves. This model, sculpted by Alex Hedström, portrays two Orc Boyz settling their differences with their fists and an unfortunate Night Goblin. This model would make a great marker to represent an Orc unit stalled by Animosity, or a characterful way of filling out the ranks of an Orc Boyz mob.

Sartosan Vampire
Sculpted by Mark Harrison.

Techmarine

This highly detailed miniature of a Space Marine Techmarine is equipped with tools denoting his position in the Adeptus Mechanicus – servo-harness, auspex and power axe. This miniature, expertly sculpted by Juan Diaz and Dave Thomas, would make both an excellent display piece and an addition to a Space Marine army, keeping its war machines operational in the midst of battle.

Steel Legion Heavy Bolter

Steel Legion Lascannon

Plague Lord Nurglitch
Sculpted By Colin Grayson.

Nurglitch was the first Plague Lord of Clan Pestilens. The model, sculpted by Colin Grayson in 2004, depicts Nurglitch as he goes to battle atop the giant rat Pox. He is accompanied by his attendant Bilios and carries a Bubonic Sceptre.

BITZ RANGE

For years Citadel has offered converters and modellers a special parts service enabling customers to purchase component metal pieces for their own modelling projects. On some distant occasion now long-forgotten these individual metal pieces were dubbed 'Bitz' – and Bitz they have stubbornly remained ever since – so that now when we talk about components we invariably say 'Bitz' and trust that everyone understands what we mean!

Our Bitz offer has evolved over the years and nowadays a range of components is offered in convenient pre-packaged selections as part of the Games Workshop Direct service. Plastic pieces now form an important part of the Bitz collection as Citadel's range of plastic models continues to expand. Many pieces previously available only as metal are now offered in plastic. Our aim is to provide as wide a range of metal and plastic Bitz as possible, and our intention is to expand the range this year and to continue to do so for the foreseeable future.

Some of our Bitz are duplicates of individual components of models available in our main ranges, but this is far from being universally the case. Many of our Bitz designs are unique pieces created specifically for converting – and as such they are not available elsewhere. New designs are often dreamt up by our sculptors or they are based on the suggestions of enthusiastic converters and modellers. Ideas for new Bitz packs are always welcome – be they alternative head types for Imperial Guard, weapon and equipment sprues, or decorative pieces of any kind... all suggestions will be keenly considered.

Customers are asked to bear in mind that all of our Bitz are intended for use by competent converters and a fair degree of modelling skill is assumed. Some reworking, cutting and remodelling will be required when fitting pieces together, whilst larger metal pieces may require pinning or supporting for strength. Obviously, there are some pieces that are designed to be compatible with other standard parts, such as our Space Marine shoulder-pad sets, but it is wise to check all pieces before assembly and to always assume that some work will be necessary to achieve a satisfactory fit.

If you want to see the entire range of Bitz please consult our online store www.games-workshop.com where you can also download the most up-to-date version of the Catalogue.

Specialist Games

If you've collected an army for Warhammer, Warhammer 40,000 or The Lord of The Rings Strategy Battle Game, and you now fancy trying something a bit different within the Games Workshop hobby, then the Specialist Games range is for you.

At present the Specialist Games range includes the following games: Blood Bowl, Warmaster, Epic 40,000, Battlefleet Gothic, Mordheim, Necromunda and The Battle of Five Armies.

Each game has an original background setting based within the worlds and universe of Warhammer, Warhammer 40,000 and the Hobbit. From leading a vicious gang in the dilapidated Underhives of Necromunda, marshalling tens of thousands of troops over the great battlefields of the Old World, commanding two-mile long cathedral battleships, coaching an all-star sports team, or going undercover deep in the lair of a Chaos cult - the possibilities are endless.

Each game in the Specialist Games range has also been designed to highlight a certain facet of the hobby - you may want to collect and paint miniatures that are in a different scale, or wish to develop a gang or team in a league or campaign environment; you may wish to role-play or tell stories through your games; or play games whose rules provide different tactical and strategic challenges; or you may just want to push spaceships about on the table top!

You can order the miniatures from www.games-workshop.com, where you will find the most up-to-date version of the Specialist Games Catalogue, or you can ask the staff in your local Games Workshop store to order them for you.

Last, but very far from least, you can find the rules for many of the games in the Specialist Range on our website as a free (yes, free!) downloadable rulebook, along with a large database of articles and player-aids as well.

All our staff are experienced gamers (after all it's what they do for a living!). They can give you sound tactical advice, help you build battle-winning armies and clear up most of your rules queries.

- Free beginners programme
Our special beginners' programme teaches you how to play and helps you take your first steps into the Games Workshop hobby. The programme runs regularly and there are also points in the week when you can indulge in more gaming too. All you need to do is come along!
- Gaming Rooms and Battle Bunkers
Like regular Hobby Centres, all Gaming Rooms and Battle Bunkers provide the full range of Games Workshop services. However they are larger than a normal Hobby Centre and have many tables, which makes them perfect for meeting fellow hobbyists.

Call your local customer service team or go to our website at www.games-workshop.com to find your nearest Games Workshop Hobby Centre, Gaming Club or local toy & hobby store.
