DESCRIPTION

A unit of Akhelian Ishlaen Guard has 3 or more models. The riders fight with Helsabres in one hand and carry shields with the other. They ride serpentine Fangmora Eels that bite at their enemies with Fanged Maws and batter them with their Lashing Tails.

COMMAND GROUP

This unit can be led by a Lochian Prince, and can have any number of standard bearers and musicians. Add 1 to the Attacks characteristic of a Lochian Prince's Helsabre. You can re-roll battleshock tests for this unit if it includes any standard bearers, and you can re-roll charge rolls for this unit if it includes any musicians.

FLY

Akhelian Ishlaen Guard can fly.

ABILITIES

Biovoltaic Barrier: The biovoltaic energy produced by Fangmora Eels is channelled by Ishlaen Guard into a crackling luminescent energy field that protects them from harm.

Ignore the Rend characteristic of attacks against this unit when making save rolls for this unit. In addition, this unit has a Save characteristic of 3+ instead of 4+ if it made a charge move in the same turn.
